To encourage wealth, you need to train your thoughts on a deeper level. But most of us do the exact opposite by trying to concentrate on what we do not have, like defaulting on bill payments, day to day struggles to ensure a better life, or lack of common necessities, etc. By doing this, you are focusing all your energy on the negatives, leading to further frustration and scarcity. Today at Soulful Saturday, I'll share some tips on how to turn this mindset around into a more positive outcome.

What is your intention? What is the big picture? What do you want?

Do you want to feel free and secure? If your intentions are not manifesting into your reality, it's because you're not feeling free and secure in the present. You can try to change your thoughts, set intentions, or repeat affirmations. Journal your day. Practice law of attraction. It's simple: you will attract more of the circumstances that make you feel the way you're currently feeling.

As soon as you know your intention. What do you need to do in order to achieve your vision?
